PASTOR PETER J. PETERS,
LAPORTE CHURCH OF CHRIST,
LAPORTE, COLORADO - VICTIM
IMPERSONATION
(OO: DENVER)

On 8/3/87, Pastor PETERS appeared at the Denver Field Office and filed a complaint regarding the alleged impersonation of an FBI Agent by an unidentified individual. According to Pastor PETERS, the unsub had telephonically contacted several private and governmental agencies in the Cedaredge, Colorado, vicinity; had identified himself as an FBI Agent; and had disparaged Pastor PETERS and his church before those private and/or governmental entities.

The details of Pastor PETERS' complaint are contained within an FD-302 prepared pursuant to his interview on 8/3/87.

Pastor PETER J. PETERS, LAPORTE CHURCH OF CHRIST, Post Office Box 766, Laporte, Colorado 80535; telephones: 484-5803 (business), 493-1130 (residence); residence: 3513 Settlers Road, Laporte, Colorado 80535, appeared at the Denver FBI Field Office for the purpose of filing a complaint regarding the alleged impersonation of an FBI Agent. During his interview, Pastor PETERS was accompanied by [redacted] Pastor PETERS provided the following information:

b6
b7C

Pastor PETERS began by stating that he had come to the Denver FBI Field Office at the recommendation of his church board to file a complaint concerning alleged activities of the FBI which interfered with a church camp which Pastor PETERS had organized at Camp Cedaredge, Cedaredge, Colorado, from July 7 - 12, 1987. Pastor PETERS said that Camp Cedaredge is located just outside of Delta, Colorado, and that he had learned of the alleged FBI interferences with his camp from [redacted]

[redacted] who resided in [redacted] Colorado, and had telephones: [redacted] and [redacted] Though Pastor PETERS had received his information from [redacted] Pastor PETERS was unsure whether [redacted] had direct knowledge of the information he had conveyed to him or whether [redacted] had learned of the information from [redacted]

b7C

According to Pastor PETERS, [redacted] advised he knew of four contacts which either he, [redacted] or [redacted] had had with an unidentified FBI Agent concerning Pastor PETERS and his church. The first contact occurred approximately one to two weeks prior to the Laporte Church of Christ camp and involved an alleged contact by an FBI Agent wherein the Agent encouraged the operators of Camp Cedaredge not to allow Pastor PETERS' church to use their facility. According to Pastor PETERS, the basis for that recommendation was the characterization by the unidentified FBI Agent that Pastor PETERS' church was a potentially dangerous group, i.e., an Aryan Nations group. The second contact occurred while Pastor PETERS' camp was in progress and involved an inquiry by the unidentified FBI Agent concerning how the camp was progressing. According to Pastor PETERS, this second contact was received directly by [] and [] advised Pastor PETERS that he had advised the unidentified FBI Agent that Pastor PETERS' group was the best [] had encountered in 20 years. Information regarding the third contact was conveyed directly to Pastor PETERS by [] while Pastor PETERS' camp was in progress and it involved an alleged statement by the unidentified FBI Agent to [] that Pastor PETERS was a suspect in the ALAN BERG murder. The fourth and final contact occurred after Pastor PETERS' camp had ended and involved an alleged attempt by the unidentified FBI Agent to acquire the names and addresses of the individuals who had attended Pastor PETERS' camp.

b7C

According to Pastor PETERS, though [] did not acquire the name of the alleged FBI Agent who had contacted him or [] had no doubt that the unidentified individual had identified himself as an FBI Agent. Moreover, Pastor PETERS stated that [] had identified two other individuals who had also been contacted by the unidentified FBI Agent with disparaging information regarding Pastor PETERS and his church. The first was an unidentified Assembly of God [] who resided in [] Colorado, and the second was, he believed, the sheriff of Delta County, Colorado. In the latter respect, Pastor PETERS predicated his belief on [] statement that during a visit by either [] or one his staff members to the Sheriff's Office, they learned that the sheriff had been previously notified that an "undesirable element" was going to be using the Camp Cedaredge facilities from July 7 - 12, 1987. Though Pastor PETERS recognized that someone other than an FBI Agent might have made the contacts with the various officials of Camp Cedaredge, he, nevertheless, expressed a strong presumption that indeed the FBI had made the contacts he had described. Alternatively, Pastor PETERS stated he would suspect members of such groups as the Anti-defamation League and the National Council of Churches, both of which have prepared reports critical of Pastor PETERS and his church.

b7C

Finally, acting on his presumptions that the FBI had indeed made the contacts he described, Pastor PETERS expressed his belief that the FBI had wronged him in four ways: A. by attempting to close his church camp; B. by characterizing the LAPORTE CHURCH OF CHRIST as an Aryan Nations group, potentially dangerous, and an undesirable element; C. by trying to procure the identities of the individuals who had attended Pastor PETERS' camp; and D. by identifying Pastor PETERS personally as a suspect in the ALAN BERG murder.

[redacted] FIRST ASSEMBLY OF GOD, 1123 Pitkin Avenue, Glenwood Springs, Colorado, telephone number [redacted] advised that [redacted] run the Church Camp located at Cedaredge, Colorado. He advised that approximately four weeks ago while at the camp, he received a telephone call from an anonymous caller who advised he was with the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI) and requested that the Church Camp not rent their facilities to PETE PETERS of the CHURCH OF CHRIST from LaPorte, Colorado. [redacted] advised that asked the caller who he was and the caller refused to give his name, so [redacted] advised him that he knew of no reason he should not rent the Church Camp to Pastor PETE PETERS.

b7C

[redacted] said there was no further conversation on that and he did not think anything of the conversation until he was contacted at this time by the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION.

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised the camp was rented for that general period of time to PETE PETERS who can be contacted through telephone number 493-1130 at LaPorte, Colorado.

b6

He advised that the FIRST ASSEMBLY OF GOD [redacted] [redacted] was also involved in the Church Camp and could be reached at [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised that he attended part of the session in which approximately 400 people from the Western United States attended. He advised there were approximately 30 baptisms during the Church Camp Meeting, and the meeting was purely religious and there were no military intentions or attitudes revealed at the meeting.

b7C

[redacted] further advised that he and many of the people who attended the meeting were "Constitutionalists" and that several of the speakers who spoke to the group identified themselves and stated they had been suspects in the Allenburg Murder. He advised he does not know the names of the speakers and they did not speak about the AYRAN NATIONS or about the Allenburg Murder. He advised he is unable to recall their names,

EDWARD MARAH, Chief of Police, Cedaredge, Colorado, was contacted at his office on September 10, 1987, inquiring if he had been approached by an individual representing himself to be an Agent of the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI) requesting that MARAH use his influence as Chief of Police to discourage Pastor PETE PETERS from using the facilities at CAMP CEDAREEDGE.

MARAH stated he was never contacted by anyone representing themselves to be Agents of the FBI requesting his help in this matter. MARAH stated he was not even aware that any particular group of people had used the facilities at CAMP CEDAREEDGE due to the fact that he did not notice any unusual influx of out-of-town vehicles driving in and about his area.

MARAH was unaware of any other people who possibly could have been contacted by this individual requesting similar types of assistance. MARAH stated he would ask of merchants in the community to determine if they had been approached, and if so, would notify the writer of that fact.

[redacted] advised he had not been contacted by any such individuals; however, he was contacted by DELTA COUNTY SHERIFF RICHARD A. MIKLICH, advising that some of the people who may be in attendance at the church meetings of Pastor PETE PETERS may have connections with a right-wing extremist group.

b7C

[redacted] stated because he was not familiar with this group, he became very concerned over this information and contacted [redacted] Colorado, and shared this information with him. [redacted] said [redacted] became very upset and questioned whether or not they should allow the facilities to be utilized by Pastor PETERS and his group. [redacted] said he re-contacted MIKLICH and asked if he should withdraw permission for Pastor PETERS and his group to utilize their facilities. [redacted] stated MIKLICH said no, that this would create more problems than if they were to go ahead and let them use the facilities.

b7C

[redacted] stated based upon Sheriff MIKLICH's recommendation and the fact that prior consent had been given, the CEDAREEDGE CAMP Directors decided to honor the consensual agreement for Pastor PETERS and the LA PORT CHURCH OF CHRIST to continue with their meetings at their site.

b6

RICHARD A. MIKLICH, Sheriff, DELTA COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT, Delta, Colorado, telephone number [REDACTED] was contacted regarding his contact with [REDACTED]. After having been so advised as to the nature of the interview, MIKLICH provided the following information:

b6
b7C

MIKLICH stated that his contact with [REDACTED] was purely informational in nature, and was precipitated by a COLORADO CRIMINAL INFORMATION CENTER (CCIC) teletype generated by some law enforcement agency on the Eastern Slope. MIKLICH stated he did not recall which agency was making the request; however, the teletype was requesting information determining if the Reverend PETE PETERS was in the area, and what activities he may be involved in.

b7C

MIKLICH stated at the time of the teletype he was not aware of Pastor PETERS' association with CAMP CEDAREGE, or his impending meeting there. After learning of PETERS' religious meetings that were set at CAMP CEDAREGE, MIKLICH said he made contact with [REDACTED] in an effort to obtain information that may be of future use for law enforcement agencies in the area.
